

Your Parish Council Needs YOU!

Whaddon Parish Council needs a pro-active and dedicated person to be a Parish Councillor.

This is your chance to join our team of seven Councillors to help share and shape the future of Whaddon, support the community, and ensure that every voice is heard.

Your Role:

- Participate in meetings to discuss community needs and priorities.
- Play a crucial role in shaping the future of Whaddon.
- Engage with residents to understand their concerns and priorities.
- Help provide and improve local facilities and services.

Who We're Looking For:

- An enthusiastic community-minded person who wants to contribute.
- Diversity of skills and backgrounds.
- Someone with the ability to listen to as well as advocate for the community.

Why Join?

- You'll make a positive impact in our community.
- You'll gain valuable experience and insight into local government.
- You'll build connections with people.

What You'll Need:

- Time for approximately 12 monthly evening meetings a year, plus dealing with correspondence between meetings and attending some events and other activities.
- Willing to undertake some training in the role of a parish councillor and local government.
- Computer skills for council correspondence and email.

To find out more on how you can shape the future of our Community;
Contact any WPC Councillor or the Clerk for more information, or Drop us a line saying why you would like to be considered, by 16th August 2026.
Come along at 7.30pm, on 17th August 2026 to
The Chapel, Stock Lane, Whaddon, MK17 0LU.

Join Us to Help Make our Community the Best it Can Be!
